3. CALL TO THE PUBLIC (Please limit comments to 3 minutes.)

3A. Positive Comments and Gratitudes about Basalt

Town Attorney Tom Smith noted this was his last meeting and thanked Council and staff for the years of work together.

Mayor Whitsitt presented Tom Smith with a plaque thanking him for his work with Council over the years.

3B. At this time any member of the public is allowed to address the Town Council on any issue, except for items scheduled for a Public Hearing at this meeting.

Mike Kerr of Elk Run noted his displeasure with the art piece at Highway 82 and Two Rivers Road. It is an installation that is scheduled to be in place through June of 2019. Mr. Kerr indicated he did not like the art, noting art was in the eye of the beholder, and many people he spoke with were not fond of the piece either. Mayor Whitsitt suggested that Council discuss this with staff.

4. MAYOR AND COUNCIL REPORTS/COMMENTS

Mayor Jacque Whitsitt reported that this past Saturday there may have been 250 to 300 people in Lions Park participating in the March For Our Lives.

Bernie Grauer reported that there had been at least 3 candidate forums, some citizen initiated, giving voters the opportunity to look at the candidates better than most years.

Jennifer Riffle thanked Council for the last meeting and the letter to Verizon and the FCC. It seemed like the letters had been effective.

5. MANAGER’S REPORT

As Manager Mahoney was not present this meeting, Council looked to Susan Philp for any comments Ryan may have left with her to pass along. Susan reminded the Council of the Forest Service meeting to be held a week from Thursday on the Upper Frying Pan Management Project. The Objection Resolution Meeting is April 5 from 1 to 3 PM at the Conference Room at the White River National Forest Supervisor’s Office, 900 Grand Ave, Glenwood Springs. The meeting would be posted in order for Council to attend if they wished.

6. PRESENTATIONS

6A. Eagle County Clerk Regina O’Brien: Update of Primary/Election Changes

County Clerk Regina O’Brien was present to discuss with Council and present to the public the changes to the upcoming primaries and how unaffiliated voters would be able to participate beginning this year.

7. COUNCIL ACTIONS

7A. Public Hearing and Second Reading of Ordinance No. 05, Series of 2018: An Ordinance of the Town Council of the Town of Basalt, Colorado, Amending Chapter 6 of the Municipal Code of the Town of Basalt – Business Licenses and Regulations – to add a new Article VI Entitled: Licensing of Tobacco Retailers (Bernie Grauer and Tom Smith)

Eric Brodell, Western Regional Director for Tobacco 21, was present with Many Ivanov, Healthy Systems Coordinator for Eagle County Health Department were present for this item. Bernie Grauer opened discussion of this Ordinance.

Mayor Whitsitt opened the public hearing at 6:23 PM. Comments thanking Council for their work on the tobacco and nicotine issue were made by Eric Brodell.

Scott Condon of the Aspen Times asked if Aspen was the first and Basalt the second to take these measures in the State of Colorado. He also asked about the licensing fee. The licensing fee has not yet been set, as staff preferred to place it in the fees and penalties portion of the code. This will be set separately.

Mandy Ivanov answered that Aspen was the first to pass the Tobacco 21, and Basalt the second to take these measures. She noted that the State tobacco control program was very impressed with the work done in this valley.

Mayor Whitsitt commented that this had pretty much been a 'one man show' with Bernie Grauer in the lead. Bernie brought this to Council and followed it through to this point; she congratulated Bernie on his work.

M/S COUNCILORS KITTLE AND GRAUER THAT THE TOWN COUNCIL ADOPT ORDINANCE NO. 05, SERIES OF 2018 ON SECOND READING. THE MOTION CARRIED 4-0.
